

Beverly Amsler

Beverly Amsler is responsible for covering stories from the Roanoke Valley and anchoring news during Morning Edition on WVTF/RADIO IQ. Beverly's experience includes television and radio reporting and anchoring, having worked at NPR stations in Pennsylvania, Indiana, and Utah. She came to WVTF/RADIO IQ by way of Salt Lake City where she was the Morning Edition anchor and News Director for KCPW and also the Morning Edition anchor for KUER.

Beverly has a B.S. degree in Music Education from Clarion University in Clarion, Pa. and an MFA in Mass Communications from Towson University in Towson, Md.